Murder Mystery Weekend

A wonderful retreat for Mystery lovers

Murder at Beauford Manor

When England's finest fictional detectives travel to the South of France for a well deserved holiday, they have no idea that they will be called upon to solve two murders. Join Sherlock Holmes, Lord Peter Wimsey, Hercule Poirot, Dr. Gideon Fell, Doran Fairweather, Miss Jane Marple, Lady Molly of Scotland Yard, and Amelia Peabody as they probe the secrets of the art world, using their own distinctive detective styles to solve the crimes. As a character in these interactive mysteries, you will get to be a detective, suspect, or witness.

"Mon ami, what will you? You fix upon me a look of doglike devotion and demand of me a pronouncement a la Sherlock Holmes." Hercule Poirot

Costumes are welcome but not required.
